18. Dispute Resolution

18.1 Notice

If there is a dispute between the Parties in respect of any matter concerning this Agreement including its interpretation or application or the determination of any matter required to be determined pursuant to any provision of this Agreement (in this clause "Dispute"), a Party may give to the other Party notice in writing specifying that a Dispute has arisen and identifying the subject matter of the Dispute in adequate detail (in this clause "Dispute Notice").

18.2 No Court Proceedings

If there is a Dispute between the Parties, no Party may commence any court proceedings relating to the Dispute unless it has complied with the provisions of this clause 18. A Party may at any time apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for any urgent interlocutory or declaratory relief, despite anything contained in this clause.

18.3 Meeting of Management

Within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of a Dispute Notice, each of the Parties must procure its managing director (or a delegate of the managing director agreed to by the other Party) to meet and negotiate in good faith with each other to resolve the Dispute expeditiously and informally.

18.4 Mediation

(a) If resolution of the Dispute is not achieved within ten (10) Business Days after the first convening of the meeting referred to in clause 18.3, each of the Parties must ensure that the Dispute is referred to mediation in Perth to be administered by the Australian Disputes Centre (or another mediation organisation agreed to by the Parties) to appoint a mediator to facilitate the negotiation by the Parties of a resolution of the Dispute and arrange a conference between the Parties in the presence of that mediator with a view to the resolution of the Dispute.

(b) Each Party must ensure that its representatives attend at any conference referred to in this clause 18.4. At any mediation conference referred to in this clause 18.4, the mediation will be conducted under and in accordance with such procedures and rules as may be agreed between the Parties and, failing agreement, in accordance with the mediation rules of the mediation organisation in force at the date of the mediation.

(c) Evidence of anything said, documents presented, admissions made or matters raised in the course of any conference with the mediator will be confidential to the Parties and the mediator and will not, unless the Parties consent, be admissible in any subsequent litigation proceedings. Failing any agreement to the contrary between the Parties, the costs of the mediation will be shared equally between the Parties.

18.5 Expert Determination

Subject to clause 18.1, if the resolution of the Dispute is not achieved within 30 days after the first mediation conference, a Party may submit to expert determination in accordance with The Resolution Institute Expert Determination Rules. A copy of the rules can be found at the following address:

<http://www.resolution.institute/documents/item/1845>. The expert's decision shall be final and binding on all Parties and will give rise to a legal right capable of enforcement by the courts.

18.6 Court Proceedings

Subject to clause 18.1, if the resolution of the Dispute is not achieved within thirty (30) days in accordance with clause 18.4 and/or clause 18.5, either Party may commence court proceedings.

18.7 Continuing Obligations

Despite the submission of a Dispute to the procedure under this clause 18, the Parties must continue to perform their obligations under this Agreement.

This clause 18 will survive termination of this Agreement.

19. General Provisions

19.1 Assignment

The Customer will not dispose of, assign or encumber any right or obligation under this Agreement, including this Agreement, without Solving Problems' prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

19.2 Entire Agreement

This Agreement embodies the entire understanding and agreement between the Parties as to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes any prior written or other arrangement of the Parties.

19.3 Severability

Any provision of this Agreement that is illegal, prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction is ineffective in that jurisdiction only to the extent of the illegality, prohibition or unenforceability. That does not invalidate the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affect the legality, validity or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction. If any provision or part thereof of this Agreement is made ineffective in any jurisdiction in accordance with this clause 19.4, then that provision will be replaced, to the extent legally possible, with a legal, enforceable, and valid provision that is similar in tenor to the ineffective provision.

19.4 Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by and takes effect and will be construed in accordance with the laws of Western Australia and the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Western Australia.

19.5 Waiver

(a) Failure to exercise or enforce or a delay in exercising or enforcing or the partial exercise or enforcement, of a right provided by law or under this Agreement by a Party does not preclude or operate as a waiver of the exercise or enforcement, or further exercise or enforcement of that or any other right provided by law or under this Agreement.

(b) A waiver or consent given by a Party under this Agreement is only effective and binding on that Party if it is given or confirmed in writing by that Party.

(c) No waiver of a breach of a term of this Agreement operates as a waiver of another breach of that term or of a breach of any other term of this Agreement.

19.6 Further Acts and Documents

Each Party must promptly do all further acts and execute and deliver all further documents (in form and content reasonably satisfactory to that Party) required by law or reasonably requested by the other Party to give effect to this Agreement.

19.7 Consent

A consent required under this Agreement from a Party may not be unreasonably withheld, unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.

19.8 No Representation or Reliance

(a) Each Party acknowledges that neither the other Party (nor any person acting on a Party's behalf) has made any representation or other inducement to it to enter into this Agreement except for representations or inducements expressly set out in this Agreement.

(b) Each Party acknowledges and confirms that it does not enter into this Agreement in reliance on any representation or other inducement by or on behalf of the other Party, except for representations or inducements expressly set out in this Agreement.

19.9 Stamp Duties

The Customer must pay all stamp duties and any related fines and penalties in respect of this Agreement or the performance of this Agreement.
